The personal data we use:

We process the personal data that we receive when u use our services or when you provide them to us. This may include:

- Given and Family names
- Address details
- Phone numbers
- E-mail addresses
- Any other personal data you actively provide to us.

Please note that – by entering your dogs to one or more of the shows – you agreed tot the special conditions and the processing of the data, as base to organize the exhibition(s) and to make the catalogue for the shows to which you entered your dog(s)

Special or sensitive data

It is not our intent to collect data of people who are younger than 16, unless the information is given with the permission of a parent or legal guardian. It is however not possible to check the age of visitors of our website. We recommend all parents to always monitor the online activity of their minor children to protect their privacy.

If we unintentionally processed the data of a minor (for example a junior handler) without proper permission please let us know. We will remove this data from our records.

Why we process your data

We process your data for the following reasons:

- To contact you in relation to your entry or to answer service related question
- To inform you about any changes in our service.
- To process your entry in the World Dog Show
- For legal obligations such as the keeping of records under the Dutch tax law.

Automated decision making and profiling:

We do not use computer(systems) that make decisions that are based solely on automated processing (including profiling) without the intervention of one of our staff members.

Programs we use to process your data

For the entry into the World Dog Show we use Online Dog shows (<https://onlinedogshows.eu>). A registration system to collect the data needed to organize the show and production of the catalogue.

For email and website hosting we have contracts with large reputable companies in the Netherlands. The protection of your privacy is ensured by legal agreement with these parties. All data is stored within the EU in according with the GDPR regulation.

How long we process your data

We will process your data no longer then needed to organize the World Dog Show or then needed to comply with any legal requirements.
